

WASHINGTON STAR (GREEN LINE)
27 MAY 1976

CIA Won't Sever All Free-Lancer Ties

CIA Director George Bush has turned down an appeal that the agency sever all ties with its estimated 20 free-lance journalists overseas. The Fund for Investigative Journalism had asked for a total ban on CIA use of journalists, including free-lancers.